GREETINGS! NGĀ MIHI!

This Tuesday 6 February, we will celebrate Waitangi Day when, we are reminded of our shared history as the peoples of this nation.

Tāmaki Treaty Workers is a network of groups and individuals in Tāmaki-makau-rau who affirm Te Tiriti o Waitangi as the basis for the future of Aotearoa.

Tāmaki Treaty Workers members, Susan Healy and Reverend Barry Jones, are sending out a call to Christian leaders and congregations to affirm Te Tiriti o Waitangi. They assert that the Christian community has a particular role of guardianship with regard to Te Tiriti which they have outlined in a new document which can be found below.

We urge you to prayerfully consider this document on this Waitangi Weekend.

THE VERY REVEREND ANNE MILLS
DEAN

URGENT CALL BACK TO SCHOOL DONATIONS NEEDED

The beginning of a new school year is an opportune reminder that this can be a stressful time with the cost-of-living crisis having a huge impact on many families' ability to afford basic items for their children.

The Anglican Trust for Women and Children are calling for donations of school items and hygiene products to help ease the burden for the families they support, and Holy Trinity Cathedral is collecting on their behalf over the next two weeks.

Please consider donating any of the following items by dropping them to the Cathedral office or bringing them along to this Sunday or next Sunday's service:

Drink bottles

Lunchboxes

Brushes/Combs

Deodorant

Toothbrushes

Toothpaste

Shampoo

Shower Gel

Sanitary Products

Thank you for responding to this urgent request.

CHORAL EVENSONG WITH ST MARY'S SINGERS 5PM Sunday 4 February Cathedral Chancel

Join us in the Cathedral Chancel for a special Evensong with St Mary's Singers conducted by Anita Banbury and accompanied on the organ by Cathedral Director of Choirs, Peter Watts. The service will include music by Orlando di Lasso, C.V. Stanford and W.H. Harris. All are welcome.

MAINLY MUSIC HELPERS

The dedicated team at Mainly Music are looking for more people to help with serving morning tea at the end of each session held on Mondays during the school terms.

This role involves arriving at the Undercroft at 9:15am, bringing a few pieces of fruit to cut for the children, preparing the morning tea and serving the tea and coffee. The time commitment would be 1½ hours once or twice a term.

We have a great team of people and everyone who assists currently, enjoys their morning and the opportunity to contribute in this way.

EMAIL RUTH

ST STEPHEN'S CHAPEL

THANK YOU

After seven years of service as a sidesperson at St Stephen's Chapel, Tony Caughley is stepping down from this duty. The Cathedral community and especially the congregation of St Stephen's would like to thank Tony and Viv for their support over the years and wish them all the best for the future.

VISITING CLERGY

Each week, we will include in this newsletter a message from the visiting clergy who preside at St Stephen's Chapel, Judges Bay on Sundays. This week, that will be The Reverend Bruce Miller-Keely who had this to say on behalf of himself and his wife, The Reverend Diane Miller Keeley:

We have been part of the St Stephen's roster over a number of years since retiring from full-time ministry, and have very much enjoyed the warmth and pastoral support so apparent within the congregation. With the historic significance of St Stephen's, and the use of the old liturgy, there is always a profound sense of being part of a tradition of prayerfulness and service which has nourished countless generations through the ups and downs of their lives.

Join Bruce and Diane at St Stephen's Chapel on Sunday for Holy Communion at 9am.

ASH WED NES DAY

PALM CROSSES

Please return your palm crosses from previous years to the bowl under the Nave bell by Sunday 11 February. They will be burnt to form the ash for Ash Wednesday.
