GREETINGS! NGĀ MIHI!

AUCKLAND HERITAGE FESTIVAL

St Mary's-in-Holy Trinity will be open to visitors during Auckland Heritage Festival and I encourage you all to come and immerse yourselves in the rich history of our beautiful taonga. From 1 - 16 October, we are extending our opening hours and a heartfelt thanks in particular goes out to all those Welcomers who have taken up extra shifts during this time.

ECUMENICAL AND INTERFAITH INITIATIVES

Over the next few weeks, the Bishop Selwyn Chapel will host two exciting events which aim to encourage dialogues within the Christian faith, as well as between people of different faiths. On Monday 31 October, we welcome His Eminence Archbishop Haigazoun Najarian of the Armenian Apostolic Church, and on the following Monday (7 November), the Children of Abraham Annual Panel will convene with three speakers representing the Jewish, Christian and Islamic faiths.

AOTEAROA NEW ZEALAND CATHEDRAL CHOIRS FESTIVAL 2022

After a year's hiatus due to COVID, the Cathedral Choirs Festival is back at Holy Trinity Cathedral for 2022! Thanks to careful planning by our music department, we look forward to welcoming choristers from all over New Zealand to Holy Trinity Cathedral. There will be plenty of opportunities to hear the collected Cathedral choirs in action over Labour weekend. Holy Trinity Cathedral will host a festival concert at 7pm on Saturday 22 October, and we will have the combined choir in the choir stalls for our 10am and 5pm services on Sunday 23 October. It is always lovely to welcome friends and colleagues from our sister Cathedrals across Aotearoa. Please do come along and enjoy the festivities.

Further information on these events and more can be found in this newsletter.

Many blessings,
Dean Anne

WEEKLY PRAYERS

A prayer for the week

Life-giving God,
as we experience your healing,
may we proclaim your deeds,
and turn to you to offer thanks and praise;
through Jesus Christ our Liberator,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God,
now and for ever.
Amen.

We pray for those who have died and those who mourn.
May the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace and rise in glory.
