GREETINGS! NGĀ MIHI!

ALL SOULS' REQUIEM

5pm Sunday 05 November
Cathedral Chancel

As we draw near to the sacred occasion of All Souls' Requiem, we remember the purpose of this day - to remember our departed loved ones. We extend an invitation to join us for our All Souls' Requiem Eucharist this Sunday at 5pm in the Cathedral Chancel.

Let us gather as a community to offer our prayers and thanksgiving for the souls who have touched our lives.

WEDNESDAYS @ ONE

Our lunchtime concerts, Wednesdays @ One, started this week with a splendid performance by Katharine Watts, Peter Watts, and Celia Mannion. The performance celebrated the golden age of music and literature. We sincerely thank all who joined us at the start of our series.

The series continues with two more concerts on 8 and 15 November, featuring presentations by four young piano students and Dr Philip Smith, our Cathedral Organist. Please save the dates and join us for these upcoming events. Entry is by Koha.

We hope to see you there!

With Every Blessing,
Dean Anne
