GREETINGS! NGĀ MIHI!

This week the Anglican Archbishop in Jerusalem has joined the Patriarchs and heads of churches in Jerusalem in calling for a global day of prayer and fasting for peace in the midst of the current conflict and humanitarian crisis in that region.

In his letter, Archbishop Hosam says: 'Once again we find ourselves living through hard times in the Land of the Holy One, where we are surrounded by war, violence, hatred, and destruction. Many in our region now live with great fear and uncertainty. Nevertheless, from Jerusalem, the City of the Resurrection, I send you all hope for the assurance of a better life: one with a brighter future, more blessed circumstances, and freedom from bloodshed, injustice, and death.'

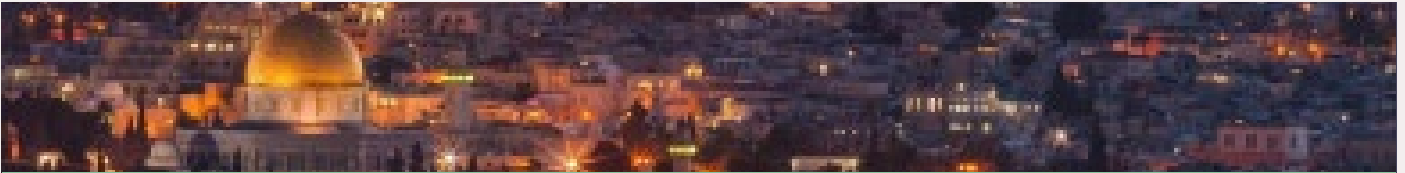

Read more on the link below.

Each day this week we have offered prayers and a time of silence at our mid-day Eucharist for the Holy Land. Many people have also come here to spend time in prayer and to light a candle. For we come with distress about what is happening in the Holy Land. We come with a variety of beliefs, and a variety of opinions. We come hoping and praying for peace. I invite each of you to light a candle in your home and take a moment of silence and then to offer the following prayer or your own prayer as we remember the people of the Holy Land.
