THE HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL NEWSLETTER

THE NINETEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME/TE RĀTAPU TEKAU MĀ IWA O HE WĀ NŌA IHO
07 · 08 · 2022

GREETINGS! NGĀ MIHI!

After much hard work and consideration by the trustees, I am delighted to announce that the new Holy Trinity Cathedral Trust for Ministry, Music and Mission will be launched on Sunday 14 August.

The Cathedral Trust—as we are calling it in shorthand— has been set up with the support and endorsement of Cathedral Council and Diocesan Council, and is governed by five Trustees from within the Cathedral community who have been appointed by Cathedral Council.

With our Cathedral buildings now finished and consecrated, the Holy Trinity Cathedral Trust for Ministry, Music and Mission will help provide a secure financial basis for the work of the Cathedral going well into the future.

I especially encourage you to attend any of our services on Sunday 14 August as the Cathedral Trust trustees will be delivering a short presentation at the end of the 8am, 10am and 5pm services.

There will also be an opportunity to ask questions at either of the morning teas after the services.

This is an exciting new era for Holy Trinity Cathedral, and I speak on behalf of Cathedral Council and all the trustees when I say that we cannot wait to share in it with you.

Many blessings,
Dean Anne

MAINLY MUSIC HELPERS NEEDED

9:15am Mondays during term time

Mainly Music provides families with preschool-aged children the opportunity to be introduced to music and creativity, and have fun together while creating new friendships.

The group meets every Monday morning during school terms, and sing and dance for half an hour. This is followed by a well-earned morning tea. We are looking for some new volunteers to join the dedicated team that provides this worthwhile service. If you are interested in being a Mainly Music helper, please contact the Cathedral Office below.

Shortly before his passing at the age of 86, influential gardener and horticulturalist Frank Cabot recounted his personal quest for perfection at Les Quatre Vents, his twenty-acre English style garden and summer estate that was opened to a film crew for the first time ever in 2009. Nestled amongst the rolling hills of the Charlevoix County in Quebec, Les Quatre Vents has become one of the world's foremost private gardens. WEEKLY PRAYERS

A prayer for the week

God our treasure,
the reign of your love and justice is your gift;
light our lamps against the darkness,
and equip us for your action,
so we are ready
and do not miss your coming;
through Jesus Christ our Liberator,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

We pray for those who have died.
May the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace and rise in glory.
