GREETINGS! NGĀ MIHI!

E te whānau,

It is my privilege to write this first front page introduction, as Dean Anne has started her sabbatical. Sabbatical is a special leave, which clergy receive after a period of ministry, which is to be used for some ongoing study, as well as for rest and relaxation from regular duties.

As expressed in my prayer last Sunday, before she left, I wish that this period is for her a time of getting new knowledge and experiences, as she visits English Cathedrals and the Iona community, but also a time of refreshment, in order to gain new energy for her ministry in our midst. We continue to pray for her.

The Cathedral is definitely buzzing these days with various events. Last week, clergy and licensed ministers of our Diocese had their Ministry Conference (photo on right), during which we were engaging with the serious and hard issues of trauma and abuse. I am grateful to the Episcopal team, especially to our Ministry Educator, Sarah Moss, for an engaging, informative, challenging and thoughtful time.

This Sunday, at 5 pm, we are coming together to celebrate Sea Sunday. The presence of many involved in the ministry to the seafarers, cadets of TS Achilles and Chaplain, reminds us of this important ministry. For this occasion, St Mary's Singers are joining their forces, under the skilled leadership of Anita Banbury, to lead "all Herbert Sumsion" service.

Daily Eucharist is offered from Monday till Thursday at 12.15 pm in Marsden Chapel. On the events side of our life, Candle light concerts continue to bring the diversity of music in our precinct and it is always nice to see a buzz around on those evenings.

I am grateful to the many clergy who will be journeying with us over next few months of Sunday. I am grateful to Rev'ds Bruce and Dianne Miller-Keeley for being with us today and for their ongoing work and support in this place. May these mostly cold days of winter be warmed by our coming together and building the community in this wonderful place.

Fr Ivica
Cathedral Precentor

CATHEDRAL ACCESSIBILITY: FEEDBACK FROM THE CATHEDRAL COUNCIL

At its meeting last Sunday, the cathedral council looked at options for improving accessibility to Holy Trinity Cathedral, following on from discussion about this at the AGM. Because the number of disability parks on Parnell Rd is limited, two extra disability parking signs have been added to the main parking area behind St Mary's, adjacent to Parnell Rd and Cathedral Close. To make it easier to get into the cathedral for the 10am Sunday service, we'll also be having the Patteson Entrance (the one close to St Mary's) open before 10am each Sunday. Please use this entrance if it's better for you than having to walk all the way outside down to the main doors facing on to St Stephens Ave. Let us know if this is helpful! Once the temporary show-home apartment is removed from the area next to the office, some limited parking will be wwreinstated there. We'll let you know when this has been done.
