Processional Hymn

1.
Lord, for the years
your love has kept and guided,
urged and inspired us,
cheered us on our way,
sought us and saved us,
pardoned and provided,
Lord of the years,
we bring our thanks today.

Lord, for that word,
the word of life which fires us,
speaks to our hearts
and sets our souls ablaze,
teaches and trains,
rebukes us and inspires us,
Lord of the word,
receive your people's praise.

5.
Lord, for ourselves; in living power remake us,
self on the cross and Christ upon the throne;
past put behind us, for the future take us,
Lord of our lives, to live for Christ alone.

3.
Lord, for our land,
in this our generation,
spirits oppressed by pleasure,
wealth and care;
for young and old,
for commonwealth and nation,
Lord of our land,
be pleased to hear our prayer.

Lord, for our world;
when we disown and doubt him,
loveless in strength,
and comfortless in pain;
hungry and helpless,
lost indeed without him,
Lord of the world,
we pray that Christ may reign.

*O God, sown is your good seed.
Give us a new heart to make it grow.*

*O Jesus, do not let it go, do not let it be destroyed. Let it grow
so that the fruits may be seen.*

*May the Holy Spirit keep us,
lest to evil deeds returns
our new heart. Amen.*

Offertory Hymn

1.

With thankful hearts we come today
to share in worship, sing and pray that, unified by Christ, we stand a faithful witness in this land.

May we, your Church, your vision see – sustaining others, setting free
from bonds of selfishness and sin.
Let fears be gone; let faith begin!

5.

Your Church empower, your people feed with grace, sufficient for our need.
Transform our lives, our strength renew; may every day be lived in you.

Text: Jocelyn Marshall

Tune: AMNS 20, Church Triumphant, J.W. Elliott

3.

Make clear your purpose for us all,
restore us if we fail or fall;
a life of service be our aim,
Christ's truth to spread, his love proclaim.

Where people hurt, their courage fled,
your healing light upon them shed.
Make us the agents of your Word,
that by our actions you are heard.

THE LAYING UP OF THE PASTORAL STAFF

After the administration of communion the Bishop prays:

Bishop: Loving God, we thank you for feeding us in this holy sacrament with the body and blood of your Son, Jesus Christ, and for empowering our lives by the grace of your Holy Spirit.

We thank you for the gift of baptism which unites us to each other and equips us to be your faithful people in the world, proclaiming the Good News and promoting your justice and peace wherever you send us.

People: We thank you especially for Bishop John and his ministry among us over many years; grant that he and we may continue to serve you all the days of our lives, and always rejoice in the power of your love. Amen.

Hymn

1.	3.
Where mountains rise to open skies your name, O God, is echoed far, from island beach to kauri's reach in water's light, in lake and star.	From broken word, from conflict stirred, from lack of vision, set us free to see the line of your design to feel creation's energy.
2.	4.
Your people's heart, your people's part be in our caring for this land, for faith to flower, for aroha to let each other's mana stand.	Your love be known, compassion shown, that every child have equal scope: in justice done, in trust begun shall be our heritage and hope.
5.
Where mountains rise to open skies, your way of peace distill the air, Your spirit bind all human kind, one covenant of life to share.

Text: S. Murray

Music: AMNS 460, V. Griffiths

The Bishop says:

Bishop: In March 1995, I was installed as the tenth Bishop of the Diocese of Auckland. I have, with God's help and to the best of my abilities exercised this trust, accepting its privileges and responsibilities.

After prayer and careful consideration, it is time that I should leave this charge and pastoral relationship, and do so with gratitude for all that has been and confident that God will continue to bless and guide our Diocese in the years ahead.

The Bishop gives his Blessing and then lays his Pastoral Staff on the Altar.

Dismissal Deacon: Go now to love and serve the Lord. Go in peace.

All: Amen. We go in the name of Christ.

Voluntary: Prelude and Fugue on a theme of Vittoria - Benjamin Britten

Please stand while the servers and clergy leave the nave. It is our custom to remain standing until the cross has made its way up the side aisle and returned to the ambulatory.

The service concludes with the Organ Voluntary and you are warmly invited to remain for this. Applause is not considered appropriate.
