Hymn

1.
God is here; as we God's people
meet to offer praise and prayer,
may we find in fuller measure
what it is in Christ we share.
Here, as in the world around us,
all our varied skills and arts wait the coming of his Spirit into open minds and hearts.

2.
Here are symbols to remind us
of our lifelong need of grace;
here are table, font and pulpit,
here the cross has central place;
here in honesty of preaching,
here in silence as in speech,
here in newness and renewal
God the Spirit comes to each.

3.
Here our children find a welcome
in the Shepherd's flock and fold, here, as bread and wine are taken,
Christ sustains us, as of old.
Here the servants of the Servant seek in worship to explore what it means in daily living
to believe and to adore.

4.
Lord of all, of Church and Kingdom,
in an age of change and doubt
keep us faithful to the gospel,
help us work your purpose out.
Here, in this day's dedication,
all we have to give, receive.
we, who cannot live without you,
we adore you, we believe.

Gradual Hymn

1.

Rejoice the year upon its way
has brought again that blessed day when on the Church by Christ our Lord
the Holy Spirit was outpoured.

2.

From out the heavens a rushing noise
came like the tempest's sudden voice,
and mingled with the Apostles' prayer,
proclaiming loud that God was there.

Text: Latin 4th Century

3.

Like quivering tongues of light and flame,
upon each one the spirit came:
tongues, that the earth might hear their
call,
and fire, that love might burn in all.

4.

Look down, most gracious God, this day
upon thy people as they pray;
and Christ the Lord upon us pour the Spirit's gift for evermore.

Hymn

1.

Great and deep the Spirit's purpose,
hidden now in mystery,
nature bursts with joyful promise,
ripe with what is yet to be.
In a wealth of rich invention,
still the work of art unfolds:
barely have we seen, and faintly,
what God's great salvation holds.

2.

Great and deep the Spirit's purpose,
making Jesus seen and heard.
Every age of God's creation
grasps new meaning from the Word.
Show us, Holy Spirit, show us
your new work begun today:
eyes and ears and hearts are open,
teach us what to do and say.

3.

Great and deep the Spirit's purpose;
all God's children brought to birth,
freed from hunger, fear and evil
every corner of the earth,
and a million, million voices
speak with joy the Saviour's name;
every face reflects his image,
never any two the same.

4.

Great and deep the Spirit's purpose,
nothing shall be left to chance.
All that lives will be united
in the everlasting dance.
All fulfilled and all perfected,
each uniquely loved and known,
Christ in glory unimagined
once for all receives his own.

Winter Study Series: Beyond Worship - Exploring Spirituality. Session One: Spirituality and the Arts, Sunday June 13th at 11.30 in the Oaks Room.

The Reverend Sarah Park, Priest Associate at All Saints, Howick will discuss her experience of putting “flesh on faith”. In Lent of this year, Sarah directed The Howick Mysteries, a passion play written for actors from the All Saints community. The seven performances were sold out with waiting lists. The experience was enormously significant – for actors and audience alike – generating remarkable theological reflection. In this first session Sarah will reflect on what has been a creative, collaborative exercise which put flesh on faith.
