GREETINGS! NGĀ MIHI! BULA VINAKA!

This weekend, we are glad to welcome Dr Dianne Rayson, a senior lecturer in theology and ethics, from the Pacific Theological College in Suva, Fiji.

With expertise in ecotheology, feminist theology, and Bonhoeffer studies, Dr Rayson has a background in public health and social policy, working in Vanuatu, Papua New Guinea and Australia's Northern Territory in health promotion, drug and alcohol, community development, and crime prevention. Her first thesis was an ethnographic study of women and childbirth in PNG. She is an experienced researcher, writer, broadcaster and educator. Her research is currently in the significance of place, space, and time to theological thinking and the value of indigenous knowledges to public theology. Dr Rayson is a member of the Anglican Church of Australia where she is a regular preacher and has served on local and national Synod.

We are fortunate to have her with us over two days. At 4:30pm on Saturday 20 July, all are welcome in the Bishop Selwyn Chapel to engage with her in talanoa/conversation about the issue of climate change in the Pacific, followed by wine and cheese.

On Sunday 21 July, Dr Rayson will also preach at our 8am and 10am Eucharists.

With every blessing,
ANNE MILLS

SUNG EUCHARIST WITH CHOIR FROM HONG KONG

10am Sunday 21 July
Holy Trinity Cathedral

We look forward to welcoming to our 10am Sung Eucharist St Paul's Co-educational College Primary School Concert Choir who are visiting from Hong Kong for the World Choir Games.

It has been a great pleasure hosting some of the visiting choirs this month as well as giving a select few the opportunity to give one more performance in the Cathedral as part of our liturgy.

We wish all the international choirs a safe trip home and thank them for sharing their music with us here in Aotearoa New Zealand.

THE CATHEDRAL STAFF FAREWELL KAYE SHANNON

This week, some of the Cathedral team had the privilege of attending a leaving party for Kaye Shannon, the manager of Sibuns Funeral Directors, Remuera until she retires next week.

Kaye has been at Sibuns for 22 years and, in that time, has been a frequent and welcome visitor to the Cathedral in her capacity as funeral director.

Many of you will know Kaye from the charity events which the Cathedral and Sibuns have teamed up to host over the years.

We will miss Kaye at Holy Trinity Cathedral but hope she will visit us from time to time!

Thank you and good luck with your next adventure, Kaye!

A NOTE FROM THE GRANDDAUGHTER OF GEORGE CROFT

'Many thanks for showing my grandsons the organ built by their great great grandfather George Croft, and for allowing the younger, Nico, to play Ode to Joy which he is learning at home on the keyboard.

They are visiting from Germany and it was very special for them to have Philip show them the organ and the back space behind it. They also found the photos of the church being moved across the road quite intriguing.

Thank you also for the copy of the original contract my grandfather signed before building the organ. Again thank you so much for taking the time to show the children such a significant part of their family history.'

A VISIT FROM ANNE ROBINSON

We may not have seen Ann Robinson at the Cathedral for some years but her work is a constant presence. Those of you who attend services in the Cathedral have look at it every Sunday! Ann was the visionary glasswork artist behind the Cathedral font which has been installed in the Cathedral since 2009.

Ann is recording an oral history of her works for Te Papa and plans to include the Holy Trinity Cathedral font.

It was lovely to welcome Ann and her grandson, Chester, to the Cathedral for a walk down memory lane. While we chatted, we were even treated to a few pieces which Chester played on the Cathedral organ with Dr Philip Smith.

SPONSOR A CATHEDRAL CHORISTER

Every second year, the Anglican cathedral choirs around New Zealand get together for the Cathedral Choirs Festival held over Labour Weekend. The festival includes choral training and mentoring, and collegial support and encouragement. The combined choirs sing a Saturday evening public concert as well as Choral Eucharist and Evensong on Sunday at the host Cathedral. Two years ago, we hosted this occasion here at Holy Trinity Cathedral, and this year the host Cathedral is Wellington. Our choir is hoping to be able to travel down and participate in the festival. The cost per choir member for flights and accommodation is around $500.

If you would like to sponsor part or all of a choir member's costs so they can share in this wonderful opportunity, it would be gratefully received. Donations can be paid either by cash to the office in an envelope or by direct credit into our bank account: BNZ branch number: 020192 0031919 01 and reference Choir Festival and name. We so are grateful for any support you might give.

A PRAYER FROM ZAIRE (DRC)

Lord, you call on us to pray for our enemies.

Have mercy on those who are disposed to do us evil and who divide your church. Deliver us, Lord, from every temptation.

Have mercy on our lack of belief and our wavering faith as we travel the path towards the unity of your people. You are our God and we want always to be your people under the guidance of your Holy Spirit.

Prayer by the group from Zaire who prepared for the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity 1993.
