GREETINGS! NGĀ MIHI!

INSTALLATION OF DEAN KATIE LAWRENCE

New Dean of Wellington Cathedral

The Deans who attended the installation of Wellington's new Dean, Katie Lawrence, last weekend had a great moment. The occasion marked a significant and memorable event for the community.

The Cathedral opened its doors to the community of Wellington to celebrate this joyous celebration.

COME AND SING EVENSONG 2

5pm Sunday 12 November

Last Sunday was beautiful, as the Cathedral was filled with the joy and excitement of everyone coming together for a special evensong. The choir, led by Peter Watts, delivered a repertoire featuring works by Thomas Tallis, Herbert Sumsion, Herbert Murrill, and John Ireland.

Heartfelt gratitude to everyone who contributed to this occasion – to Peter Watts, Dr Philip Smith, the dedicated choir team, and all those who volunteered their voices. It's the collective spirit of our community that makes these moments special. Thank you for being part of this beautiful celebration!

WEDNESDAYS @ ONE

'SEEING WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR:' A PRE-ADVENT SERIES

Mondays 20 & 27 November

7:30pm, St Mary's-in-Holy Trinity Cathedral

The holy and blessed season of Advent has traditionally been a time of fasting in the Church calendar, anticipating the feasting and celebrations of Christmas. One way of understanding fasting is as intentionally increasing our awareness of our heart's desire. Advent can easily be subsumed by the end-of-year business and busy-ness of Christmas.

This brief series offers an opportunity to spend a little time before Advent begins re-orienting ourselves to the gift and mystery of this season. A journey to prepare for the journey, if you like. An exploration over three sessions engaging with images and symbols, concepts and words. The overarching theme is to prepare ourselves for the invitation to deeper faith which we will each encounter during the season of Advent. Each session will conclude with a brief service of Night Prayer.

Each session stands independent of the others. You are welcome to one or all.

Session 2 - Ponder these things: Considering Mary
