ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY First presidential address

The Most Reverend Sarah Mullally is the 106th Archbishop and the first woman in this office.

Service, stability, and shepherding are to be the themes of the newly elected Archbishop of Canterbury's time in office, she told the General Synod during her first presidential address.

GREETINGS • NGĀ MIHI NUI

Now that another busy year at the Cathedral is in full swing, I am increasingly aware of how much we need moments that slow us down and help us notice where God is already at work among us. Last Sunday, I had the privilege of preaching and presiding at St Bride's, Mauku, during their Patronal Festival, and of blessing three native trees planted in the regenerated bush behind the church. It was a simple act, yet rich with meaning—a sign of faith taking root and hope growing quietly over time.

That occasion led me to reflect on St Brigid of Ireland, whose life continues to speak powerfully into our own. Brigid reminds us that the light of Christ is not a firework or a spotlight. It is a steady, persistent glow, revealed in compassion, hospitality, and everyday acts of service. Her deep conviction that Christ dwells among the poor and vulnerable still shapes the heart of Christian ministry today.

In my blog post this month, I explore what Brigid's witness might offer us as a Cathedral community—how her generosity, courage, and bridge-building spirit invite us to carry Christ's light into ordinary places and daily encounters.

I hope this reflection offers you encouragement and space for prayer as we continue our journey together

With every blessing,
ANNE MILLS, DEAN

ECUMENICAL ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICE

7:30pm Wednesday 18 February

The Catholic Cathedral of St Patrick and St Joseph

This year, Holy Trinity Cathedral will join with our friends at the Catholic Cathedral of St Patrick and St Joseph for our Ecumenical Ash Wednesday service.

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent—a season of prayer, repentance, and renewal—as we are reminded of our shared humanity and our need for God's grace. Gathering across traditions is a powerful witness to our unity in Christ and our shared commitment to walk the Lenten journey together.

All are welcome to come, receive the imposition of ashes, and begin Lent as part of the wider Christian community.

HOLY SILENCE;

HOLY NOISE:

CATHEDRAL LENTEN STUDY SERIES 2026

7pm Mondays 9, 16 & 23 March
Bishop Selwyn Chapel

Holy Trinity Cathedral's Lenten Study Series this year is entitled Holy silence; Holy noise.

Our services of worship flow within the deep and richly beautiful traditions of Anglican liturgical practice and music. But where has all of this come from? How can the words and the music and the silences between them deepen our encounter with the Spirit of God?

Discussions over three evenings will be facilitated by Barry Graves, Carolin Telford, Katharine Watts and Peter Watts.

Please register for this series by clicking below.

Almighty and everlasting God,
you hate nothing you have made
and forgive the sins of all who are penitent:
Create and make in us new and contrite hearts,
that we, worthily lamenting our sins
and acknowledging our wretchedness,
may obtain of you, the God of all mercy,
perfect remission and forgiveness;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.
