Dear Holy Trinity Cathedral Community,

I know that you will have been following the warnings about Cyclone Vaianu. I encourage you all to keep updated on the conditions and Civil Defence recommendations. Please follow any official guidance and comply with any state of emergency directions in your area. At this stage we will be holding our 8am Eucharist in the Bishop Selwyn Chapel and our 10am Sung Eucharist in the Nave tomorrow unless the wind and rain warnings are upgraded to RED. If this occurs, we will post any cancellations to our services on our website and social media.

That said if you have concerns about travelling or feel unsafe to go out, please stay home, even if you have a duty to perform here tomorrow. Your safety and wellbeing are paramount.

Keep safe and look after one another.

With every blessing
